

Jana Kirschner, Simple Song

Even though I play a simple tune
I can hear an orchestra in my head and soul Sleepiness falls over my eyes let me play for you sweet lullaby

Will you walk with me across the sun
We can find a place and sit down a while Will you call my name when nobody will
Will you stay the same way that you feel

Even if I sing alone in my room
I can feel the audience in my heart and soon
I'll close my eyes and you're by my side
Let me play for you my sweet lullaby
