

Jane's Addiction, Another Soulmate

I'm down with you, baby
Down with you, honey
Yet another soulmate
Love to meet your latest
This one looks regretful
Possibly the greatest
Twice your age
We all make?
Anyone ever told you that you only?

Another soulmate
Where'd you go?
Oh my soul

You go out to the parties they?
You enter looking fabulous
You leave there looking trashed
You one you're with now took you on
A bumpy two-month ride?
And you always act surprised

Another soulmate
Where'd you go?
Oh my soul

What you got that I ain't got
My soulmate makes me shoot my?

Another soulmate
Where'd you go?
Oh my soul
