

Jane Wiedlin, Tangled

I remember our bodies lyin' tangled in the sheets
I remember when love used to be so swee-ee-eet
Now the only thing that's mixed up
Is the way I feel insi-i-ide

We're pushin'-pullin', we're twistin'-shoutin' (shou-outing)
I never thought I'd feel this dou-oubting, dou-oubting

Oh-oh baby, I'm so-o tangled
Twisted up like a lo-over, was never ever meant to be-ee-ee
Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled
These riptides of emotion are drownin' me
Ta-angled

What was simple is now complicate-ed
And all the plans we made just seem outdated
Woh-oh-woh, now hearts are breaking
And hopes are dying (dy-ying)

Why do we always end up cry-ying, cry-ying
Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled
Twisted up like a lo-over was never ever meant to be-ee-ee
Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled (woh-oh-woh)
These riptides of emotion are drownin' me

I know that it's confusing you
Still I can't stand the thought
Of using you

We're pushin'-pullin', we're twistin'-shoutin' (shou-outing)
I never thought I'd feel this dou-oubting, dou-oubting

Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled
Twisted up like a lo-over was never ever meant to be-ee-ee
Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled (woh-oh-woh)
These riptides of emotion are drowing me (drow-ow-owning)

Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled
Twisted up like a lo-over was never ever meant to be-ee-ee
Oh-oh baby I'm so-o tangled
Twisted up like a lo-over was never ever meant to be-ee-ee [fade]
