

Janelle Monae, I Like That

sometimes a mystery, sometimes I'm free depending on my mood Or my attitude sometimes i want to roll Or stay at home walking contradiction Guess, I'm factual and fiction

a little crazy, little sexy, little cool little rough around the edges
but I keep it smooth
I'm always left to center
and that's right where I belong
I'm the random minor note you hear in majors songs

and I like that I don't really give a fuck
If I was just the only one who like that I never like to follow, follow all the Oh me, oh me, oh me, oh my /4x
I like that

I don't care what I look like but ui feel good better that amazing and better that I could told the whole world I'm the venom and the antidote take a different type of girl to keep the whole world afloat cause I'm crazy, I'm sexy, I'm cool

little rough around the edges
and that's right where I belong

and I like that
Oh me, oh me, oh me, oh my /4x
I like that

I remember when you called me weird we was in math class, third row, I was sitting by you Right before Mr, Ammond's class cause my mom couldn't afford new J's polos thrift sore, thrift clothes that was all I knew Do you remember?
I remember, when you laughed when I cry I cut my perm off and you rated me 6.
I was like, damn,
but even back then whit the tears in my eyes I always knew I was the shit

and I like that

I like that
