Janet Jackson, Ask For More

Feel you, hold you, taste you as you travel Deep into my senses, so refreshing

Soon you will open up the door Feel my eternal love So pour yourself right into me Too much is never enough

I love love You need a love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

I need love You have love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

Come feel love Come taste love Just ask for more Da da de da, da da de da, da da de da, da da de da (Ha ha, ha ha)

Give the love a chance to speak to you And its voice will bring passion As I taste you in your silence

I feel the love When we're having fun So pour yourself right into me Too much is never enough

I love love You need a love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

I need love You have love Don't be afraid Just ask for more Deserve love Touch this love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

Come feel love Come taste love Just ask for more

Da da de da, da da de da (Ha ha, ha ha, ha ha ha) Da da de da, da da de da (Ha ha)

Feel you, hold you, taste you as you travel Deep into my senses, so refreshing

Soon you will open up the door To my eternal love So pour yourself right into me

Too much is never enough

I love love You need a love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

I need a love You have a love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

Deserve love Touch this love Don't be afraid Just ask for more

Come feel love Come taste love Just ask for more
