

Jann Arden, Will You Remember Me

Will you remember me when I'm gone
Will you remember me at all
I tried to be kind, I tried to be good.
Will you remember me
God only knows why we try and fail
Is this heaven on earth or the fires of hell
I tried to be honest, it's hard not to lie
Will you remember me after I die
Will you remember me
Will you remember me
I've got a junkie heart, in a cage of bone
I'm a scientific wonder, a sober son
I was born blue-blooded
So I've never made a cent on my own
I don't need to tell you that I'm afraid
'Cause I'll be paying for all the mistakes I've made
I tried to be thoughtful, it's hard not to be blind
Will you remember me after I gone
Will you remember me
Will you remember me
Will you remember me
Will you remember me
Will you remember me
