

Jasmine Guy, I'm Just A Normal Girl

people these days
what a wast of breath they try to hard to be perfect man ihate it i'm not jealous i love that i'm myself i just think they should do better these days i wish to sit under the stars each night pray that i'll always be here with my family all i am is just a normal girl oh people should get that bye now oh

if i am high do you think ill fall i wish someday i could learn to fly without falling cause that would be so great and fun it's impossable i don't have wings or nothing nothing to be safe with all i am is just a normal girl if you're not gonna say anything nice don't say anything at all don't say anything at all it's not nice

keep that in mind

this time i'll forgive and forget my love of the life... cause i had enough of getting hurt it's time to be happy move on ohhh
