

Jasmine Guy, Jasmine

my goodness my happiness last forever my moments when i laugh is funny i feel i got a true inside without family there would be no me at all without love shown to me i'd be lost heres a list of what i plain to do in future you must never lie or dumb me i'm just a child please know there's know me without you you got to understand that when i sing i laugh too when i sleep i smile when i open my eyes

i feel so special
