

Jasmine Trias, If Ever I See Heaven Again

You're leaving now
I won't try, try to change your mind now baby
I won't say no words designed to make you stay
You've gotta live your life
I won't stop you
You've gotta do what's right for yourself
No matter what you do
I'll always love you
I only know
If I
If I ever see heaven again
It will be in your eyes, your eyes
If I ever feel heaven again
It will be in your arms, your arms
It will be, it will be with you
You'll walk away
And I'll pray, I'll pray our roads will cross again someday
Deep in this heart of mine
I'll still love you
Deep in this soul of mine
You'll be there I swear
The sweetest times I knew were time I held you
I only know
If I
If I ever see heaven again
It will be in your eyes, your eyes
If I ever feel heaven again
It will be in your arms, your arms
It will be, it will be with you
You've gotta live your life
I won't stop you
You've gotta do what's right
For yourself
I know no matter what you do
I'll always love you
I only know
If I
If I
If I ever see heaven again
It will be in your eyes, your eyes
If I ever feel heaven again
It will be in your arms, your arms
If I ever see heaven again
If I ever feel heaven again
It will be in your arms, your arms
