

Jay-Jay Johanson, Changed

Poetry, painting and puzzles
Occupied all of my life
Until the day when I met you
This changed
Chemistry, cooking and cars
Gave no time over for love
But when I saw you I realized that Things can change
Now when I'm safe and secure
In peace at a harmless place
Without surprises and action
I'm getting bored
Drama class, drinking and drugs
Was close to breaking me down
Now my priority's different
I changed
