

Jazzy, Shooting Star

You leave me lost for words, like what'd you call it, baby?
"You can be my girl," like what's the story, babe?
I'll always put you first, even when I'm at my worst
You got me where it hurts, so I know that it will work

And I know I just met you, but I'll be seeing you later
Don't be acting a player, I got you right on my radar
And when time goes slow, I got you in my soul
Even though you said you'll leave me, you're standin' in my heart

Got you in my soul
(Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da)
(Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da)
(Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da)
(Da-da-da-da)

You don't even know
Just who you are
You just need to glow
Like a shooting star, a shooting star

Shooting star
Where you are
Shooting star
Where you are

The way you move, the way you walk in
The look in your eyes is mesmerising
I try to hide it, but I'm all in
You're on my mind, I'm fantasising

And I know I just met you, but I'll be seeing you later
Don't be acting a player, I got you right on my radar
And when time goes slow, I got you in my soul
Even though you said you'll leave me, you're standin' in my heart

Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da (Got you in my soul)
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da-da-da

You don't even know
Just who you are (Got you in my soul)
You just need to glow
Like a shooting star, a shooting star
