

Jean Shepard, Bitter Tears

Oh darling how I wish that we could start out over I'd never ever be untrue
Too many heartaches has caused my world to tumble
And so my heart is crying bitter tears for you
A broken heart is crying bitter tears for you
Lord and all his angels know how I love you
And oh how I remember the day we had to part
You saw these bitter tears a flowin' from my broken heart
[steel - piano - guitar]
A broken heart is crying...
