

Jean Shepard, Tear Dropped By

A tear dropped by a tear dropped by this morning I found it in my eye
Honey it should be there I hadn't planned to cry
But I guess I should know by now no matter how I try
Everytime I think of you a tear drops by
A tear drops by just to ask how things have been
And before I can answer it's invited all its friends
Soon a crowd has gathered filling both my eyes
Everytime I think of you a tear drops by [guitar]
A tear drops by just to ask...
