

Jean Shepard, Wherever You Are

I don't have to live in a mansion or ride in a brand new car
I just wanna be near you wherever you are
And if you were locked in a prison I guess I have to cut the bars
Cause baby I have to be with you wherever you are
I don't wanna be a queen on a throne I don't wanna be a big star
I just want you to call me your own and never be very far
You don't have to be a big hero I love you just like you are
I just wanna be near you wherever you are [steel - guitar]
I don't wanna be a queen...
I just wanna be near you wherever you are
