

Jeanie Lurie, Super power

Every time, and every day I think that i'm in a plane always flying, always in the air. i could disapear when i'm only think i'm here. every time and every day i think that i'm in a plane ref. i've got a super power why i think that i'm not from (here) i wanna get it over it isn't normal i could dream i could think i'm always get one thing i'm not girl who says the rules but i wanna stay here
i've got a super power
why i think that i'm not from (here)
i wanna get it over it isn't normal maby you would never ever understand i shouldn't think about it oh yeah yeah
i've got a super power
i wanna get it over it isn't normal
