

Jeannie Ortega, So Done

Damn I never thought
I'd say what I'm about to say
Didn't want anyone
But I met you and the whole thing changed (yeah)
All the things you said had me hopin'
That your game was true. (yeah)
Got to comfortable didn't see the real side of you
And now it's obvious, even with your best
This is ain't gonna work no more.
What was I waiting for
I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances
Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
And I really had it.
I'm so done
Now don't come around
With promises that don't exist
Cause heard it all before
And your sorries ain't fixing this (no)
Held on for so long
Cause I didn't want to let you go
Thinking you really cared (you really cared)
And that time would let it show
And now it's obvious, even with your best
This is ain't gonna work no more.
What was I waiting for
I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances
Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
And I really had it.
I'm so done
Maybe I was stupid
Thinking you could handle this
I was dead wrong counting on you for my happiness (yeah)
I hate to realize I didn't see it up to now
I been a fool not leavin' you but now I'm breaking up
So I'm gonna keep on pressin' on
I'm so done (oh)
I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances
Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
And I really had it.
I'm so done
And there's nothing you can do
I'm better off without you
There will be no second chances

Taking you back
Cause I'm over that. So done
Nothing you say can change my mind
Don't even waste your time
Truth is you took me for granted
And I really had it
