

Jebediah, Weekend Away

I gotta go gotta get away
Just for the weekend
I gotta go 'cause I just can't stay
Just for the weekend
When I go leave this shit behind
Just for the weekend
Maybe then something good I'll find
Just for the weekend

You gonna run in the wrong direction
You gotta run in the wrong direction
You're so far and alone, you're so far and alone
I don't care this is not my problem

There's not a lot that I have to take
Just for the weekend
There's not a smile that I have to fake
Just for the weekend
When I go leave this shit behind
Just for the weekend
Maybe then find some peice of mind
Just for the weekend

You gonna run in the wrong direction
You gotta run in the wrong direction
You're so far and alone, you're so far and alone
I don't care this is not the real thing

What's forever when I leave?
Wipe myself with my soggy sleeve
What's forever when I leave?
Wipe myself with my soggy sleeve
What's forever when I leave?
Wipe myself with my soggy sleeve
What's forever when I leave?
Wipe myself with my soggy...
