

Jeff Anderson, I Will Follow

It feels like Im stuck here lost in a memory of you
And the time I failed you thinking that youll pull through.
Yet you, you still remind me you hold the key to my heart.
Give me one more try to tell you what Im feeling deep inside.
I will trust in you, that youll see me through the darkness.
Your ways are perfect. Your heart is seamless.
And youre the one who loves me more than I could ever know.
Why must I go through this misery.
Take me to the place where you can make me to the man that I need to be.
You keep trying to tell me what life means but I keep chasing dreams not meant for me.
I will trust in you, that youll see me through the darkness.
Your ways are perfect. Your heart is seamless.
And youre the one who loves me more than I could ever know.
Anywhere youre taking me to. I will follow you.
No matter what Im going through. I will follow you.
Standing face to face with you is all I want to do.
Ill follow you.
