

Jeff Deyo, Satisfy

my heart has grown so cold i've let the darkness in i've said You are everything but still You weren't enough i've not been true to You my life has hurt you, Lord i'm running back into the safety of Your hand i want to be free, Jesus

i want to be satisfied in You and You alone
take this heart
take my life
hold me close
satisfy
i want to be free

my heart has heard Your call but i have closed my ears i've said i would follow You but still i chase the wind i've stretched my hand toward You while holding to this world but now i'm letting go and reaching out to You

i want to be free

i'm letting go, Jesus because i want to be free
