

Jeff Healey, My Honey's Lovin Arms

I love your lovin arms
They hold a world of charms
A place to nestle when I'm lonely
A cozy morris chair
Oh, what a happy pair
One caress, happiness
Seems to bless my little honey
I love you more each day
When years have passed away
Youll find my love belongs to you only
Cause when the world seems wrong
I know that I belong right in my honeys lovin arms
