

Jeff Scott Soto, Don't Come Easy

I lie awake here by the phone
Knowing u're not alone 2night
I've waited with anticipation
Only 2 hear the same old lies

It once was seemed so, so easy u could feel it in your heart
Never guessing wrong from right
& Now I seem 2 know the answers without asking the questions
Of where, what, when & why I'm telling u love...

Love don't come easy
Well, it can tear u apart, cuz it don't come easy, love
Love don't come easy
Should've known from the start, it don't come easy, love

I'm desperate 4 some resolution
I need 2 know u still care
I see u at night when I'm dreaming
Open my eyes, there's no one there

We're running out of time, but it's clear my prediction
Is all I've come 2 know
& If I had a chance 2 do it all again
I'd take some time 2 show I'm telling u love

Don't come easy (no love don't come)
Don't come easy
Well, it can tear u apart, cuz it don't come easy, love
Don't come easy (no love don't come easy)
Don't come easy
Should've known from the start, it don't come easy, love

Tell me where do I turn, tell me what u want me 2 say
Can't go on anymore, I don't want 2 go on this way, it don't come easy love

It once was seemed so, so easy u could feel it in your heart
Never guessing wrong from right
& Now I know the answers without asking the questions
Of where, what, when & why I'm telling u love...

Don't come easy (no love don't come)
Don't come easy
Well, it can tear u apart, cuz it don't come easy, love
Don't come easy (no love don't come)
Don't come easy
Should've known from the start, it don't come easy, love

Don't come easy (no love don't come)
Don't come easy
Well, it can tear u apart, cuz it don't come easy, love
Don't come easy (no love don't come)
Don't come easy
Should've known from the start, it don't come easy, love
