

Jefferson Airplane, War Movie

In nineteen hundred and seventy-five, all the people rose from the countryside, locked together hand in hand all through this unsteady land, to move against you government man do ya' understand, gonna roll roll roll the rock around roll roll roll the rock around lift the rock out of the ground At the Battle of Forever Plains, all my people hand in hand in hand in the rain, the laser way won the day without one single living soul going down. the government troops were circled in the sun gun found themselves on the run... from our nation, the rock is raised no need to hide from the other side now... transformation call high to the constellation headquarters call high to the most high directors send out the transporting systems and send out the sun finders thirteen battalion of mind raiders three hundred master computer killers from great platforms in the mountains twenty mile lasers & great giant trackers... twenty miles south now in 1975 all my people rose from the countryside until we meet again and touch our hands together in another land until we meet again & see each others minds we three have met again and touched our hands talking of Napoleon in the garden we will muffle the drums tomorrow mornin gonna roll roll roll the rock around gonna roll roll roll the rock around lift the rock out of the ground
