

Jen Foster, Everybody's Girl

"I don't know why you don't go back to college and get your degree."
he said "You could be anything you wanna be if you only believe it you're worthy, beautiful you don't need their approval And I'll be the rock that you can lean on...."

"Well I've watched you work the room-people hangin' on every word,
You build it, then kill it, leaving the mystery everybody needs, You're broken, beautiful, you fascinate them all
And they'll be the wind that you can lean on...."

Any why are you everybody's girl?
Why do you throw your arms around the world?
When I am all you need to see you through
I don't believe it, no, I don't believe it, no, I don't know,
know about you

"I don't know why you don't give up the wild life and come be with me, you know
Cause I feel you, and I'm real you gotta believe that I would never would leave you, 'cause
I'm strong, dependable, I could give you the world, Why can't I be the one you lean on?"

"And why are you everybody's girl?
Why do you throw your arms around the world?
When I am all you need to see you through
I don't believe it, no, I don't believe it, no, I don't know,
know about you

Because I always fell short, because they always wanted more Because he left and shut the door before you came along Couldn't feel anybody's love so everybody's love was not enough
But I know that one day it's gonna fill me up

And that's why I am everybody's girl
That's why I throw my arms around the world
When I am all I need to see me through
I don't believe it, no, I don't believe it, no, I don't know,
know about you
