

Jennifer Kae, Education

What gives you the right to critisizee?

Overanalyze all the fings I do

Why the hell do I feel victimized?

Do you sleep at night?

How could you be so cruel?

When did I become the enemy?

When did you lose all respect for me?

Where's the person that you use to be? You history...

Ref.

It's only love, an I think it's overrated

I can't believe all this time we've wasted

I never thought that I'd hear myself say this

It's like someone's turned the light on

So take your smile and your little observations

I don't even wanna have this conversation

You're man who doesn't know his limitation, so thank you

It's been an education

So tell me, what was all the fuzz about

Coz without a doubt, it's done nothing for me

You had it, I bought it and then you went and broke it

I wouldn't take you back for what you did to me

When did I become the enemy?

When did you lose all respect for me?

Where's the person that you use to be? You history...

I don't even wanna have this conversation

You're man who doesn't know his limitation, so thank you

It's been an education

Now's the time for changing my direction, I realized

I'll never find perfection now you're gone and I am moving on

I'm ready for love resurrection oh
