

Jenny O, Earth Has Won

So you're spent and all your images fall to the ground and there's only one thing to be done Is it fun? Is it sound?

Did you know that you can do anything that you want?
And you can say anything that you think .....smiled could be right.

And we laugh about it now
but i think there's a price to pay
Tell me when the earth has won

Don't you recall all the years that you spend on the mall and is there nothing left to gain

but i think there's a price to pay
Tell me when the earth has won
(Tell me when the earth has won)
(Tell me when the earth has won)
(Tell me when the earth has won)
