

Jens Lekman, Rocky Dennis' Farewell Song

Blind girl, I missed you I missed you so much I've been sending you letters, trying to call you but I can't seem to get in touch I bet your mom and dad are scared of me or maybe they just care about their daughters

I think back upon summer camp and I think I wanna show you more colors Here's white, here's black Here's the color of my heart as it's starting to crack Deep red; dark blue
I think I'm in love with you (think I'm in live with you)

Blind girl, I wish you were here
I wish we'd come closer I wish you had met my family my mom and Bulldozer

I think back upon summer camp on New Years Eve when we danced I could sit and watch my life go by or I could take a tiny chance, 'cause someday I'll be stuffed in some museum Scaring little kids with the inscription carpe diem Something I never did

But can you remember how we rode shiny horses and we set courses for the sky and the ocean
And I tried to explain it to you but it was too huge

Blind girl, I miss you
Blind girl, I miss you
Blind girl, I miss you
