

Jeremy Camp, He Will Come Through

So many decisions I have in store
So afraid I'll close up one more door.
And I know the only way,
Is that I trust You and obey.

The cluttered thoughts that are in my head,
is the reaction that I dread.
And I know the only way,
Is that I trust You and obey.

He will come through,
Even when I don't know what to do.
He will come through,
Cause His word says it's true.

The feelings are overwhelming me,
but in the end, it's what You see.
And I know the only way,
Is that I trust You and obey.

He will come through,
Even when I don't know what to do.
He will come through,
Cause His word says it's true.

He will come through.

He will come through (x4)

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Even when I don't know,
Even when I don't know,
Even when I don't know what to do (x4)
