

Jeremy Camp, Take My Life

Here I am before You now
Like a child I'm reaching out
Here I am I'm giving all I can Breaking my pride I feel I'm through Shattered inside I run to You
And now I give it all to You

Take my life, Take my mind take my soul take my will
I am yours now, and I give it all to You

Laying all down before my King
Offering all my everthing
Laying all down before the one I serve
I can understand the reasons why
You came on this earth and died
And now I give it all to You

I can feel You on my shoulder
So I know that You are there
I can see You paint my picture
The beauty is all there
