

Jeremy's, Andy

I'm thinking
About it
Is there no other way?
I'm not lying
So cold since yesterday
Could someone please come to me
I'm kinda sinking in I'm not sure 'bout this program
I don't seem to fit in
And sometimes I get it
Though it's wrong... gotta have it
Yeah

Like they care about me they're just embarrassed for their neighbours and families and god knows who else more they talk just like they owe me
Am I supposed to do Everything they tell me
Shut up, follow through?
Well sometimes I get it
Though it's wrong... gotta have it

Now let me go (andy)
And give that stuff (to me)
I won't fight there's no time
Just give it up and I'll be fine
Now let me go (andy)
It won't be bad (for me)
Honest I can do without Just not here not now

Give it up now
It's not working
No regrets
It's just too early
There's so much left to try out
Won't come clean
I don't need you to find out Where I've been

I'm thinking
About it
I's driving me insane
the last time
I had some that would be yesterday the doctor's trying to ditch me, keeps blowing me off
The nurse would never listen. At least not long enough
Well sometimes I get it
Though it's wrong... gotta have it
