

Jeremy's, Nadine

Way too cool to cut your hair and
Way too hot to not look dumb
I feel weird you make me care 'bout
That I got no clean shirt on
Should stop staring your way this is
Not taking me anywhre
Did you notice that I left
A note right on the counter there?

Nadine Nadine
You're all I see
You don't know me
But soon you will
I won't give up
Too late for that
Now please reply
To what I've sent Nadine

Someone smart said 'don't you worry
Nothing's wrong it's not too late'
But I don't believe in that and
You're not coming back today
For some time I looked for stuff that
We could do and laugh about
If you want to you can be
The last one I can't do without
