

Jericho, And She Said

This train ride lasts too long
All I do is wonder where I went wrong
I knew right from the start this woman's mind was poison
I'd be torn apart
Six months left behind, six more wasted time
Is how my life unfolds
So she wants you to know you're only as good as your gold
"Comfort me, shelter me, cover me," she said
And she said... And she said, "Nothing lasts, nothing lasts"
The daylight lasts too long
I don't know what she wants, why she comes and goes
Six months left behind, six more wasted time
And now my life unfolds
So she wants you to know you're only as good as your gold
"Comfort me, shelter me, cover me," she said
And she said... And she said, "Nothing lasts, nothing lasts"
So she wants you to know you're only as good as your gold
"Comfort me, shelter me, cover me," she said
And she said... And she said...
And she said, "Nothing lasts forever."
And she said...