

Jerk, My Friends All Lie

You pick me up, to put me down
Your only joy, is when im gagged and bound
A subtle prick, a blatant lie, your denial
Your denial.

No-ones gonna save my life when im drowning
No-ones gonna give a shit when I die
All my friends try to tell me im the greatest
And my friends all tell me but my friends all lie
No-ones gonna save my life when im drowning
No-ones gonna give a shit when i die
All my friends try to tell me im the greatest
And my friends all tell me but my friends all lie
My friends all lie.

Lost my faith, forgiveness too
My kindness destroyed all because of you the futures stopped, do you like the view?
No really its nothing.

No-ones gonna save my life when im drowning
No-ones gonna give a fuck when I die
All my friends try to tell me im the greatest
Yeah my friends all tell me but my friends all lie
No-ones gonna save my life when im drowning
No-ones gonna give a fuck when I die
All my friends try to tell me im the greatest
Yeah my friends all tell me but my friends all lie.

When I was a child the innocence was deafening
Then something happened that took a bite
And left a sting!

No-ones gonna save my life when im drowning
No-ones gonna give a fuck when I die
All my friends try to tell me im the greatest
Yeah my friends all tell me but my friends all lie.
