

Jerry Lee Lewis, Another Place Another Time

One by one they're turning out the lights

I've been feedin' that ol' jukebox just to hold you tight

I guess its for the best I just put in my last dime

I heard you whisper "We'll meet again, another place, another time"

Chairs are stacked all over tables its closing time they say

I could wait right here forever if they'd only let me stay

Anywhere would be much better than lonley room of mine

Throug a lonely night a waitin' for

Another place, Another time

Won't that room of mine be a lonely place to be

I've been so used to holding you close to me

Won't that old stairway be hard to climb

To a lonley room waiting for another place, another time

Won't that old stairway be hard to climb

To a lonely room to wait for

Another Place, Another Time
