JUST IN TIME

WRITERS LEON ASHLEY, MARGIE SINGLETON

If you fail to see me in the barroom tonight
Don't worry bout me cause I'm doing fine
You see I just been waiting for a new decent line
And she came along just in time
Just in time her lips so close to mine
Took away my taste for the wine
I was headed for the barroom and just couldn't seem to stop
But she came along just in time
With a lost love in my mem'ry I kissed new lips each night
And pretended this was my kind of life
But a little hope is for me true love could still be mine
I guess she came along just in time
Just in time her lips so close to mine...
