

Jess Mills, Live For What I'd Die For

I wanna love the one i never dared to, Speak the words I hid away, Wanna say each word
Of why I would say your name I wanna say the things that I was scared to, Shout them high see where they fall
Let them make no sense and never care at all,
My heart is beating to a rhythm,
That nobody else can hear,
But I can hear it I can hear it clear,
If you can see me now later you want me to be..

Im gonna live for what Id die for,
instead of pushing for fight to feel that Im alive, everyday.
im gonna live for what Id die for,
instead of fighting for my life and i know i did it right,
when its taken away.

I wanna step on to the high wire hundred miles above the ground, to walk a line and never to look down,

So that?s where they can find me,
Between the clouds and the sky,
That is where I am gonna watch the world go by,

Im gonna live for what Id die for,
instead of pushing for fight to feel that Im alive, everyday.
im gonna live for what Id die for,
instead of fighting for my life and i know i did it right,
when its taken away.
