

Jesse McCartney, Intro

Let me introduce myself for those of y'all who don't know
Was me who kicked down the door back in two thousand four
Thought that you knew me when I was bringin' "Beautiful Soul"
That was a preview, let me shoot you the first episode
Make ups and breaks up, yeah, I fell in and out of love
Wrote it all down, for you, to look it up
Twenty one years, hoppin' in and out of clubs
What would you do in my shoes, you'd be livin' it up

Don't get it twisted, yeah there's a piece that you never see
Tryin' to kick the shit from affecting my whole family
Caught in the middle... who's a friend? Who's an enemy?
I do what I can 'cause in the end I'm where I wanna be

I don't need to talk about it, just let the record play
Hate it or love it, it don't matter 'cause I'm here to stay
Ladies get your - up, give it a little shake
And fellas throw your hands up... let's go

Now turn it up up up
Now put your hands up up up
Now put your... up up up
Now turn it up up up
Now turn it up up up
Now turn it up up up
Up up up
Up up up
