

Jesse McCartney, Sweet Time

It isn't a crime to want a little space to breathe
But you will be fine, the sun again will shine
On you, whatever you do

(Chorus)

Take your sweet, sweet time
'cause I will be here when you'll change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here for you baby, anytime
Oooh ooh

I'm feeling you pull away
'cause letting go isn't easy for me
But you'll never fly with someone else's wings,
I know, wherever you go

(Chorus)

Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here when you'll change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here for you baby, anytime

I won't ever stand in your way
Wherever your heart may lead you
I will love you the same
And I will be your comfort everyday
Do you hear the words I say?

(Chorus x3)

Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here when you'll change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here for you baby, anytime

I will be here...for you
Oooohh....mmmhmmmm
