

Jesse Powell, You Don't Know

(Intro)

You don't know, baby
Just what I'm going through...
You don't know, baby
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

(Verse 1)

Girl, there's just no getting over you
The more I try
The more I cry
Girl, no matter what I say I'll do
It still comes back
To wanting to get with you, baby
As I walk room to room, my love
I see traces of you, pictures of you
And I smell your perfume, oh...

(Chorus)

You don't know, baby, mmh... &lt;No, you don't know&gt;
Just what I'm going through over you
You don't know, baby, mmh...
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

(Verse 2)

Girl, I sometimes walk out in the rain &lt;Yes, I do&gt;
To hide the tears
And drown the pain
I sit alone inside a restaurant
I get tea for two, 'cause I know that's what you'd want, baby
But you're not even here, my love
And I just don't know why, I'm losing my mind
I can't let you go, baby...

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

You see there's no getting over you
I try, but it's hard to lose
The feeling, baby
I keep holdin' deep inside of me, baby
And when I cry, I cry tears of pain
My life will never be the same
Trust me, baby, you just don't know, babe...

(Chorus)

I wanna go outside in the rain &lt;To hide the tears&gt;
I wanna go outside in the rain &lt;I can't stop cryin', baby&gt;
I wanna go outside in the rain &lt;'Cause I'm all alone&gt;
I have no days &lt;I have no&gt;, I have no nights &lt;I got no&gt;
Without you, girl, I have no life

(Chorus/Fade Out)
