

Jessica Folker, Love You Like A Fool

To be or not to be,
it doesn't mean that much to me Kiss me and set me free, you can do that (you can do that)
So what's it gonna be, real love or poetry
Kiss me and set me free,
you can do that (you can do that)

But if you treat me like a dog, I'll be leaping like a frog
If you ever let me down, you will lose me baby
I am sure of what I want,
so tell me what to do

Should I love you like a fool,
or should I stop and play it cool?
What is good enough for you,
to make it happen
Let me stay or let me go,
either way I got to know
What is good enough for you,
to make it happen
What about you

Sweet love good or bad, this is the best I ever had Kiss me and set me free,
you can do that (you can do that)
Play me like a symphony,
I don't mind the mystery
I am sure of what I want,
but what about you Love you like a fool

Should I love you like a fool,
or should I stop and play it cool?
What is good enough for you,
to make it happen
Let me stay or let me go,
either way I got to know
What is good enough for you,
to make it happen
What about you

Come on inside
It's drivin' me crazy
Am I alone to feel this way
Come on inside
Tell me I am wasted Or show me that I'm the one to

Should I love you like a fool,
or should I stop and play it cool?

'Cause I love you like a fool Yes I love you like a fool
Let me stay or let me go
What about you
