

Jessica Harp, Boy Like Me

Your the kind of boy who likes the kind of girls Who like to fool around with the boys on the first date
Im the kind of girl who is ain't suppost to like those boys
But I kinda like those boys that like those kind of girls Well maybe its fate we should meet up for a date
We can sit around and talk about Those things we just cant talk about like making love and drinkin until the sun comes up Well hallelujah I finally found a boy like me
Lord have mercy I think Im in a fantasy
You may talk alot of stuff sayin you gonna do what
Do you want to do with me Well
Hallelujah I finally found a boy like me Your the kinda boy my dad used to worn me walking into my life and lead me down the way Im the kinda girl who tried hard to ingore those things that daddy worned about those kinda boys Well whats a girl to do with a big old by like you when we sit around and talk those we can just talk about like making love and drinking until the sun comes up Well hallelujah I finally found a boy like me
Lord have mercy I think Im in a fantasy
You may talk alot of stuff sayin you gonna do what
Do you want to do with me Well
Hallelujah I finally found a boy like me Sit around talkin about those things we can just talk about
like making love and drinking until the sun comes up Well hallelujah I finally found a boy like me
