

Jessica Riddle, Drown

Have I thanked you yet for ripping me apart
Now that I left, would you regurgitate my heart
It seems you swallowed it whole
Yeah, I got a thing with control

Did I give everything back
Can we avoid that phone call
Can you cut me some slack
Take down the pictures from the hall
It must be time to take a bath
Yeah, I gotta think to relax

I think I'll fall asleep
Let the water rush inside of me
I pray that you'll call on me
'Cause I'm way too scared to actually
Drown like I did into you
I can't believe we're really through

Have I thanked you yet for the instant karma
And I got what you get
When you swear you couldn't harm a fly
And you're cheating on your lover
With another guy

I think I'll fall asleep
Let the water rush inside of me
I pray that you'll call on me
'Cause I'm way too scared to actually
Drown like I did into you
No I can't believe it's over
I can't believe it's through

I think I'll fall asleep
Let the water rush inside of me
I pray that you'll call on me
'Cause I'm way too scared to actually
Drown like I did into you
I can't believe we're really through
