

Jessica Simpson, Goodbye

I can see the pain livin in your eyes
And I know how hard ya try
You deserve to have so much more
I can feel your hurt and I sympathize
And Ill never critosize all you meant to my life
I dont wanna let ya down
I dont wanna lead you on
I dont wanna hold ya back
From where you might belong
*~chorus~*

You would never ask me why
My heart is so disguise
I just cant live a lie anymore
I would rather hurt myself
Than to ever make you cry
Theres nothing left to say...
But good-bye
You deserve a chance at the kind of love
And that your unworthy of Losing you is painful for me
I dont wanna let ya down
I dont wanna lead you on
I dont wanna hold ya back
From where you might belong
*~chorus~*

You would never ask me why
My heart is so disguise
I just cant live a lie anymore
I would rather hurt myself
Than to ever make you cry
But good-bye
You would never ask me why
My heart is so disguise
I just cant live a lie anymore
I would rather hurt myself
Than to ever make you cry
Though its gonna hurt us both
Theres no other way...
Than to say good-bye
Good-bye
