

Jesus On Extasy, Puppet

She stays alone all day does not know what to say when he walks through the door she dreams the pain away
(She dreams the pain away)

Oh, she's the puppet with a broken face never wanted to embrace the love that she received corrupt and false
she never knew
that she was just a doll

He makes her presents makes her sad carries her over to the bed she can't go on that way She dreams her life away
(She dreams her life away)

the love that she received
corrupt and false
she never knew
that she was just a doll

When he touches her she gets so scared
