

Jibe, Hypocrite

So you're perfect
As far as you can see
You think you're everything
That everyone should be
Your thoughts are perfect
In every little way
You know you're always right
Wouldn't you say
Come down
Take a look around
Could you spare a moment of your time
Come down

So you're perfect
It's nothing new to me
It's something you make sure
That everyone can see
Your words are perfect
With everything you say
Your mind is perfect
You tell me everyday
Come down
Take a look around
Could you spare a moment of your time
Come down

(Come down)

You're so perfect
You're so perfect
You're so perfect
You're so perfect
Come down
Take a look around
Could you spare a moment of your time
Come down
Could you spare a moment of your time
(Could you? Could you?)
Come down
Take a look around
Could you spare a moment of your time
Come down
Could you spare a moment of your time
(Could you? Could you?)
Come down
Come
