

Jigsaw, One Step Too Far

Lost in a dream
I thought that I could take it all
Part of my scheme
To wait and watch your teardrops fall

Everyday you had your way
Pushed me round
Until today

You've passed the point of no return
One step too far
Turn and watch your bridges burn
One step to far
Really is the last straw
Now there's no more one more

You've taken just one step too far

Never again
I seem to say that everyday
Ten out of Ten
For making me say it again
Anyway, I've had my say
It's over now
Because Today

You've passed the point of no return
One step too far
Turn and watch your bridges burn
One step to far
Really is the last straw
Now there's no more one more

You've passed the point of no return
One step too far
Turn and watch your bridges burn
One step to far
Really is the last straw
Now there's no more one more

You've passed the point of no return
One step too far
Turn and watch your bridges burn
One step to far
Now there's no more one more.....
