

Jill Barber, Hard Line

Hard Line
Jill Barber

Today I took my love away swear I thought I hear
 My own heart whispering
 its dying words

Chorus:

Cause it's a hard line that you would take
 Take a lifetime to make it
 Don't do it for mine, but for your own sake
 If you choose to take it

Verse 2:

Today I let our love die
I stood by it til its last sigh
Then disappeared from the scene of the crime
Locked away and served my time

Instrumental

Bridge:

Cause in a great divide
 Where a line is drawn Oh you must decide which half you're standing on

Verse 3

Today I met a new love
How could I be sure
Whether it was ever true love
That I had known before
