

Jill Sobule, Someone's Gonna Break Your Heart

Someone's gonna break your heart someday
And that day is coming soon
You can't carry on this way
Someone's gonna break your heart someday

You're the luckiest guy I know
You got everything a girl would want to hold
But you just let 'em go
And they shatter

The mirror on the wall
Says you're the fairest one of all
Someday won't be so kind
You won't be pretty
And it's a pity

Someone's gonna break your heart someday
And that day is coming soon
You can't carry on this way
Someone's gonna break your heart someday

You will understand
Why others hurt
Why they can't have
The ones they want
The one they crave
We all look forward to that day

Someone's gonna break your heart someday
