

Jim Brickman, Your Love

Hey, time won't wait
Life goes by
Every day's a brand new sky
Every tear comes to drown
All that really matters in this crazy world is you and I together baby
Just remember
The first leaves off the trees
The way you look at me
A thousand charming church bells ring
The simple things are free
The sun, the moon, the stars
The beating of two hearts
how I love the simple things
The simple things just are
So, here we go, let's just dance
Teach my soul to take this chance
Put my heart in your hands
Add up all the moments that we leave behind
Turn around and tell me baby we'll remember
The thunder and the rain
The way you say my name
After all the clouds go by the simple things remain
The sun, the moon, the stars
The beating of two hearts
how I love the simple things
The simple things just are
The ocean and the sky
The way we feel tonight
I know that it's the love that brings the simple things tonight
The sun, the moon, the stars
The beating of two hearts
I love the way the simple things, the simple things just are
I love the way the simple things, the simple things just are
