

Jim Capaldi, Man With No Country

Man with no country
Jim Capaldi

Man with no country
Just a guitar and a love that he sung
(he only wants to see)

Man with no country
walking along down long dusty roads
(he wants to stay ahead of everything)

He's got to see new horizons each day
He'll never stay

Man with no country
Looks up and sees birds in the sky
(he wants to be so free to fly high)

Man with no country
Never looks back to that place that he's coming from (something inside him always moving on)

Though he'll remember the moments of making new friends each day
Still he won't stay

Man with no country
Comes into town and looks for a bar
(somewhere that he can play his acoustic guitar)

The girl at a moment sees him and says "I'd like the way that you

touch the strings
come play with me I'll give you everything"

But he's such in other things that will set him so free (that's the way he knows it's got to be)
And heaven is a long long way from where he stands
He's a very lonely man

But he's such in other things that will set him so free
(that's the way he knows it's got to be)
It's gotta be
And heaven is a long long way from where he stands
He's a very lonely man

Ohhhhhh
Man with no country
Yeah
Man with no country
Ohhhhhh
Man with no country
Ohhhhhh
Man with no country
Uhhhhh Yeh Yeh Yeh
Man with no country

Lalalalala
Lalalalala
Lalalalala
Lalalalala
Uhhhh
