

Jim Guthrie, Who Needs What

god it's hard to be yourself when everyone around you thinks your someone else there's a cupboard full of dishes and fridge full of food hell i wish you needed me as much as i needed you

don't back down on me now
i need this

she got a call requesting that she choose her words accordingly or she'll never stand a chance with the one that moves her

go get drunk on me now
you need this

shit yeah take a chance shit yeah i can dance
